San Angelo's Great Celebration.

W. A. Tuley, traveling passenger agent of the Sante Fe route, with headquarters at Dailas, was in Waco yesterday scattering literature around advertising the grand excursion to San Angelo, the new terminus of the Santa Fe, in Tom Green county, in honor of the completion of the road to that rapidly growing and prosper-ous city. The great celebration occurs on the 17th and 18th and the excursion train leaves Temple at 6:30 on the morning of the 16th reaching San Angelo at 4:30 in the evening. Ali trains from the north and south on Santa Fe main line will make clo connection at Temple with the special for San Angelo. Tickets will be sold at one straight fare for the round trip from all points on the Santa Fe, with the further provision that the fare for the round trip shall not exceed $6 from any station on the Santa Fe. As an earnest of the character of the celebration it may be mentioned that the citizens of San Angelo have already collected and placed in bank $5,000 to pay the expenses of the oc-casion. Tickets will be on sale September 14th and 15th good to return until the 20th inclusive.

A Timely Suggestion.

The following from the railroad columns of the Dallas News, might be taken under advisement by Waco. The fact that the suggestion ema nates from a rathroad passenger agent in no way impairs its potency or value. The suggestion is:

The passenger agent of one of the most important Texas roads suggests that this is the golden opportunity for Texas to advertise herself as a winter resort. It will be time in a few weeks for the thousands of people who go to Florida for the winter to be easting about for some other place, as rew weeks for the thousands of people who go to Florida for the winter to be casting about for some other place, as it will be six weeks or two months before yellow fever germs will be killed in the Flowery state, and before northern people, with their exaggerated ideas of the horrors of yellow fever, will venture into that winter ple-nic ground. Thomasville, Ga., is as near Florida as even the boldest tourists would think of venturing, and Thomasville won't begin to accommodate the fiftieth part of those who have made their arrangements to come south for the winter. That the climate of Texas, particularly that of southern Texas, is as delightful in winter as that of Florida, everybody that has compared the two knows, and the present time affords the most favorable opportunity the state will perhaps ever have of calling the attention of the northern people to the fact. The resorts of southern Texas, as they are, are ample to accommodate all the disappointed Florida tourists. And if the tourists could be induced to come to Texas one winter, Florida would never catch them again.

Free Delivery in Waco.
An EVENING News reporter this morning asked Judge Gerald the status of the free delivery system in Waco, and was told that the mail boxes, carrier's pouches and other ac-coutrements had arrived and orders had been issued for the introduction of the free delivery system in Waco on October 1st, but before it could go into effect the presence of an inspector to confer as to the designation of car carriers' districts, street lettering and numbering was necessary. Judge Gerald has repeatedly requested the authorized inspector to come to Waco and look after this work, but so far he has not come, but may put in an appearance in due season. The judge who has the recommendation of persons for the position of carriers, has observed to any other fixed upon the parties whom he will delivered to any out of the city. recommend but has not sent in their names as the approval of the inspector is also necessary and he desires to wait for this so that no tedious delay and stoppage after the inspectors For cold weather, but order your winter coal visit.
